Fine Art Camps

An enchanting week with The Marvegos includes studio work on MWF, creating works on paper, a sculpture, and breaks filled with fun activities. Plein aire (on-location) drawing and painting on Tuesday and Thursday. Projects vary from week to week. Camp programs for teens provide more art making time and breaks are taken at teen's discretion.

Class Information

1 hour classes

A fun approach to drawing, watercolor, sculpting, mixed media, and printmaking keeps students clamoring for more in classes for this age group. Creativity is exercised and students learn terminology used in fine art making.

1½ hour classes

Form and composition are the focus of these 1½ hour classes. Concentration on one media at a time allows students to build their understanding of the media. Observation skills are developed as students make original art.

2 hour classes

These classes build on the interests of students. Students will set goals for each project and learn to use composition and their own unique markmaking to complete original works of art.

Pre-requisite to (FAF) Fine Art Fundamentals Class for Fall Session

This one hour class teaches students about form: what form is, how to find form, and how to use it. Email studio manager for schedule.

3 hour classes

Portfolio Building for Ages 12+
 Portfolio ready artwork will be created in this class to help students round off their portfolios. Students should bring their portfolios to the first class.

Preliminary to Advanced Exploration (AdEx) Classes
 5 projects that prepare students for our ADEX program, learning what it takes to design their own projects.

ADEX Classes for continuing students
 2 and 3 hour classes are available to continuing ADEX students
